NEWS OF THE DAY

Oscar Hammerstein, the impresario, is lying in a serious condition at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, following an operation performed by Dr. Henry G. Bugbee for blood poisoning in his left leg. Worry over the death of his three sons last year and his age —he is 66—have greatly accentuated the condition of Mr. Hammerstein and may greatly affect the chances of his recovery.

Several demands were made yesterday upon the German steamship companies in Hoboken by the neutrality squad, consisting of customs men and Federal agents, who have made a thorough investigation during the last few days into charges that the neutrality of the port was being violated by the German ships interned here. The most important demand was the immediate dismantling of the wireless apparatus of each of the fourteen ships.

The British admiralty has made the significant announcement that the 2[illegible] officers and men rescued from the German submarine U-8, which was recently sunk in the English Channel, will not receive the honorable treatment usually accorded to prisoners of war. The admiralty announcement intimates that the men will be held for trial, but the exact nature of the charge to be made against them is not stated. There has been a persistent demand throughout England that they be hanged as pirates.

That Italy is on the brink of entering the European war on the side of the allies and may issue a declaration against Austria within 48 hours is the belief in well informed Italian circles in New York.

Gladys Montague, an actress who played leading parts with Charles Hawtrey, but has since been out of employment for many weeks, shot herself in a taxicab in New York early yesterday, and is at the point of death in Roosevelt Hospital.

Lillian May Cook, of Brooklyn, N Y., the missing girl whose body was found on top of West Rock, died from a self-inflicted pistol wound, completing a carefully laid plot to end her life, and she alone was responsible for her suicide, according to official report filed by Coroner Eli at New Haven, Conn.

Because she had broken off her engagement on account of his drinking habits, Allen S. Taylor, 55, of Cleveland, seriously wounded Mrs. Lillian P. Harris, 45, church worker, and killed himself by firing a bullet into his temple. Taylor left two notes, one to his former wife, saying he intended to commit suicide, the other to an undertaking concern, directing cremation of his body.

Famine and pestilence are rampant over Western Poland. According to the Russian military authorities 1,000,000 persons are threatened with starvation. The devastation of the country is laid to the German invaders.

Domestic unrest in Austro-Hungary has been increased to the point of revolution by action of the Hungarian government in prohibiting the export of grain into Austria There is only enough food in Austria to last the population five months, it is estimated.

Reports received from Peking state that Japan has sent China a virtual ultimatum giving her until March 12 to accept the Japanese demands and intimating that if the demands are not accepted by that date Japan will resort to force.

Deputy Gournaris, who has accepted the post of premier, announced the future policy of Greece under his regime. "If the Chamber of Deputies fail to follow the policy of friendly neutrality toward Serbia and the powers of the Triple Entente, it will be dissolved at once," said the new premier. Greece is prepared to enter into the hostilities upon a moment's notice.

Three British ships were torpedoed and sunk yesterday—two without warning and a third with the loss of thirty-seven of its crew of thirty-eight—by German submarines engaged in a concerted raid on widely separated points of the English coast.

PLANS FOR NEW SCHOOL DELAYED

Resolution Appropriating $35,000 for Work Laid Over.

WILL PASS IT LATER

Resolutions Introduced in Common Council Looking to Enforcing Law Against Rollerskating.

The volume of business before the City Council was larger last night than at recent meetings. Most of the papers presented, however, referred to matters of general nature. The Common Council passed an ordinance which provides for its publication in the nature of proposals for a franchise for the operation and maintainance of a telephone system in Alexandria. The substance of this instrument was published in yesterday's Gazette.

The resolution appropriating $35,000 with which to begin the construction of the proposed new high schoo building will come up for action at another meeting. It was introduced in the Board of Aldermen and laid over.

An ordinance amending the law in reference to a measuring and inspecting lumber was passed by the lower board but laid over by the Aldermen.

There was a decided movement in the Common Council against rollerskaters. A resolution was adopted calling upon the Corporation Attorney to prepare an ordinance forbidding this juvenile pastime upon streets or sidewalks of the city. This was passed, as was also a resolution requesting the Board of Police Commissioners to enforce laws already existing on the subject. The Aldermen concurred in the action of the lower board upon each.

Board of Aldermen.

All the members of the board were present, and there was no discussion upon any measure which came up.

Mr. Ballenger, chairman of the joint committees on finance, schools and public property, introduced a resolution appropriating $35,000 for beginning the construction of the new high school building, but, at his request, it was laid over. A special meeting will probably be called to act upon the resolution.

Mr. Summers introduced a resolution appropriating $250 with which to purchase an additional horse for the fire department. It was referred to the committes on finance and fire.

Mr. Hill from the committees on finance and poor, made a favorable report upon a petition of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society asking an appropriation of $250 to aid in the maintainance of a visiting nurse, and it was adopted.

The board, after concurring in the action of the Common Council on all papers sent in, adjourned.

Common Council.

All of the members were present except Mr. Marshall, who is unable to attend.

Mr. Brumback from the committee in charge of the Telephone Franchise introduced a measure providing for this franchising, and explained the matter in detail. He stated that it was impracitcable to put all the telephone wires underground, as the committee had hoped could be done, as this would cost not less than $1,000,000. He said the Telephone Company had almost no wires on King street, but that the franchise would provide that not more than 7,500 feet of underground conduit be laid on proper notice from the city. The franchise is to run for 25 years. It provides that the Telephone Company give the city 12 free telephones, can lay underground wires anywhere within 400 feet of their main office, at any time they wish, and that no change can be made in the local rates, without the consent of the State Corporation Commission.

The ordinance was read the second and third times and passed.

Mr. C. S. T. Burke introduced a resolution directing the Corporation Attorney to draw an ordinance prohibiting roller skating in the city. Mr. Burke said that he was one of the committee who had appeared before Council some time ago asking that certain privileges be granted roller skaters, but that these privileges had been abused, and he believed that it should be withdrawn.

Mr. Brockett believed that there was sufficient law now if the police force cared to enforce it. That if a resolution directing the police department to pay some attention to this matter were passed it might do some good.

Mr. Burke's resolution was referred to the committee on general laws, and later Mr. Smith introduced a resolution directing the police department to enforce all laws now in effect that would tend to relieve the situation.

When the petition from the Co-operative Charities asking for an additional appropriation of $300 to care for the poor of the city was received Capt. Bryan moved that this sum be appropriated.

This started a lengthy discussion. Mr. Brumback thought that entirely too much money was being spent this year by the Co-operative Charities, and felt that a halt should be called.

Mr. Taylor Burke said that he had heard many criticisms of the way this money was handled, that it was turned over to two or three ladies. No one seemed to know exactly who, and the money was spent by them without any accounting. When the money was first turned over to the Co-operative Charities the Association he said had a large and active membership, but that he believed it was now run by a very few, and that some change should be made. He stated that he would not vote for this appropriation until arrangements were made whereby he and the public could find out where and for what this money was going.

Mr. Harry Burke said that the ladies of the association had brought their books to him yearly for examination, but that their accounts were too lengthy to audit in detail. These ladies had saved the city much money, as before they took charge of the fund the same work had caused the city from $3,000 to $3,500 a year, and is costing the city from $1,500 to $1,800 now.

Mr. Brockett agreed entirely with Mr. Burke. He thought the money should be appropriated, and felt that every confidence could be placed in the ladies who were expending it.

Mr. Brumback insisted that the ladies of the Co-Operative Charities should be required to keep books and to submit them for inspection at regular intervals.

Mr Bendheim said that no one seemed to know who these ladies were, and asked for information.

Mr. Marbury mentioned the names of several of the active members and said there was absolutely no grounds for critiscisms, that they were very efficient, and had saved the city many thousand of dollars. The appropriation was made by a unanimous vote.

An ordinance providing for the measuring and inspection of lumber laid over from the last meeting was taken from the table and after a discussion of details and an explanation by Mr. Swaine the measurer of lumber was passed.

The official proceedings of both boards will be found elsewhere in the Gazette.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.

The Circuit Court for the city Judge J. B. T. Thorton presiding, convened today. The case of the Mutual Ice Company against the Capital City Telephone Company for the loss of a horse, was continued.

The suit of John W. Humphries against the Alexandria County Lighting Company for $10,000 damages, was argued, demurrer dismissed and case continued.

In the case of Theresa Lacy vs. Charles W. Lacy, a divorce was granted the plaintiff from the defendant on the ground of desertion.

The building committee of the Alexandria Hospital held a meeting last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce and discussed with the hospital staff tentative plans for the new hospital. The bill has been passed in the House, and is now slumbering in a committee of the Senate. The resolutions were adopted and several members of the Senate said that they would see that the bill passed in the upper branch of the Legislature. Mr. Koiner stated that there is now very little hog cholera in the State, and that it is appearing in only a few sections.

PISTOL DUEL OF RIVALS

Man in Crowd Leaving Theatre Seriously Wounded by Another Who Waited on Curb

Philadelphia, March 10.—As a crowd of people was filing out of a motion picture house yesterday, on Christian street west of Seventh, a man coming out of the theatre and another who had been standing on the curb suddenly drew revolvers and engaged in a duel. At the first shot the crowd fled terror stricken. Each of the duellists fired twice.

Both of the shots fired by the man standing on the curb struck the other who was Giuseppe Mylano, of Christian street near Seventh. After Mylano had fallen, with two bullets wounds in the abdomen, the other duelist held the crowd at bay with his revolver unil he reached an alley. Then he disappeared. No one in the crowd was armed and he made his escape.

Mylano who lay on the pavement bleeding from his two wounds was hurried to the Pennsylvania Hospital where it was found that one ball had passed cear through his abdomen. The police say that the man who shot Mylano is Nicolai Aneillo, whose address is unknown. From the wounded man they learned that the quarrel was the result or rivalry for the affections of a girl.

RUSHING TAX BILLS

Stearnes Makes Thurst at Railroad—Alleges They Do Not Pay Their Just Proportion.

Richmond, March 10—Morning, afternoon and night sessions held by the House of Delegates yesterday indicated the desire of the overwhelming majority of the members of the General Assembly to complete the building of the superstructure to be placed in the foundations for the segregation system of taxation laid by the two branches of the Legislature before the recess.

The pasage of the Torrens land registry bill late in the night session was a feature of the day's proceedings in the House. Captain W M. Myers guided the bill to its pasage

The Senate yesterday practically completed its tax revision work, passing the remainder of the essential bills of the segregation plan. The House of Delegates was more argumentative and correspondingly dilatory. The House devoted the greater part of the day to debate. Action was necessarily delayed.

Ten bills were passed during the day by the House, two dismissed as inconsequential, or having been covered by Senate measures, and several passed by. The summary for the day was entirely satisfactory to the administration forces.

REV. DR. GREEN PREACHES.

Delivers Interesting Sermon at Union Episcopal Services at Christ Church Last Night

At the union services of the three Alexandria Episcopal Churches held in Christ Church last evening, the Rev. Dr. Berryman Green gave a concise and clearly interpreed d sermon on the harm of conscience. The difference, he said between the publican and the pharisee was that one recognized himself as a sinner and the other could not or would not see himself in his true light.

The greatest disaster that can come into a man's life is the inability to discriminate between light and darkness, was one of the points the speaker laid emphasis upon. And to know right from wrong is to do right, to practice right. To learn temperance is to exercise self-control. Instead of thinking do and act.

Dr. Green spoke of the results of wrong doing, it being the continuance of evil, and how grateful one should be whose first downward step was depicted, this discovery frequently being the means of saving the soul.

His first warning was to avoid the polite terms given to evil instead of their natural names.

The climax of his sermon was the awfulness of the death of a man's soul long before his going to the grave.

Bible observation, "The wages of sin is death," is a proven fact, says one of the world's greatest physicians. The spiritual death—how irreparable!

The next union service will be held St. Paul's Church on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The preacher will be the Rev. Dr. Rollins, of the Seminary. The services have proved an excellent innovation for the Lenten season and have all been well attended.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

Rev. Dr. Mc Elroy preached a very helpful sermon last night on the Family, a Solidarity for Heaven. He spoke of Moses declaring to the Pharaoh of Egypt that all his family and possessions would go up from the land of Egypt to the land of Canaan. He said the family is the unit and not the individdal and that God wants father, mother and children to all journey to heaven. He said the plagues of Egypt were to punish Pharoah, discredit the gods of Egypt and accredit Jehovah. Dr. McElroy will preach his last sermon this evening. An offering will be made for home missions.

IT HAS EVER THUS BEEN SO.

During the past few weeks considerable sensation has been caused in Richmond by champions of the Vice Commission alleging that certain members of the Board of Police Commissioners were, in a measure, responsible for conditions which prevail in the capital city. The hints and inuendoes were many, and Mayor Ainslie determined to give those who were loud in their talk oppportunities to prove their allegations. Of course, he could do nothing until some responsible parties came forward, filed their charges and announced their purpose to appear and sustain them. He waited until yesterday, having purposed to send a communication to the Board of Aldermen, which met last night. But no one appeared and offered his charges; hence the Mayor found he could do nothing.

It should be apparent by this time that a Mayor cannot act in any case where aspersions are cast upon subordinates without something definite upon which to base proceedings. The delinquency on the part of certain people in Richmond when asked to face the music is often seen in other places. People know much until called upon to testify, and then it it found that they "know nothing of their own knowledge."

A man in Alexandria several years years ago found a bucket of slop near his back gate. He assumed immediately that it had been placed there by a neighbor, and rushed to the police station where he demanded a wurrant for the arrest of the supposed offender. Upon being asked if he saw the party place the slop in the place he designated, he replied that he did not. He was further asked if any member of his family witnessed the act. He replied that no one had. He was then asked if he knew of any persons who saw the neighbor deposit the bucket where found. "No," he replied. When informed that he could not swear out a warrant against the suspect on such conditions, he left the station house in anger, supposing that the person he desired to have arrested should be haled into court, convicted and fined upon general principles.

One of the most thrilling chapters in Eugene Sue's "Wandering Jew" is the description of a mob chasing the Captain General of the Jesuits into a church in Paris. All were anxious to get at him and take his life. After the fugitive had entered the church and the mob barred from following him into the sanctuary, they clamored for his life. A priest, who possessed coolness and nerve, asked if it took several hundred men to kill one man? The would-be lynchers hung their heads at this interrogation, and when the priest offered to let any one member of the mob enter and dispatch the object of their wrath, not one volunteered for the work. In a short time all had followed the example of the accusers of the woman when the latter was brought before the Great Teacher.

COUNCIL AFTER ROLLERSKATERS.

As will be seen by the proceedings of the city fathers last night, two resolutions were introduced which are aimed at rollerskaters. One instructs the corporation attorney to prepare an ordinance forbidding any one to indulge in this pastime upon any street or sidewalk in the city; the other requested the Board of Police Commissioners to instruct the policemen to enforce laws which have heretofore been adopted concerning this exhilarating amusement.

Since the construction of new roadways and granoilithic sidewalks in Alexandria the number of rollerskaters has increased an hundred fold. Before these improvements were made old and young who enjoyed the sport patronized pinces where rinks were conducted. So long as the participants used the roadway there was no serious objection to the antics of the skaters, especially the young, who find much pleasure in the pastime, but the more adventurous, and in many cases the mischievous, were soon using the sidewalks, compelling pedestrians to dodge them. After dark this was an annoyance and often dangerous, especially to the old, who feared they might be knocked down and injured. Council passed a law forbidding the use of the sidewalks by the merry-makers, but the law is more honored in its breach than observance.

On some thoroughfares, especially Washington street, skaters move up and down in platoons, holding each other's hands, and often virtually block the sidewalks and in some cases the streets. This is dangerous both to themselves and others, as drivers of automobiles and other vehicles are kept anxious lest they run over the thoughtless ones.

IS GERMANY READY FOR PEACE?

It was stated yesterday that the Berlin newspaper Vorwaerts reproduces an article from the Wochenschrift, a Berlin weekly publication, by Prof. Paul Rohrbach, who, the Vorwaerts says reflects the government views. The article recalls, that Frederick the Great was the conqueror in the seven years' war , although he failed to gain a square mile of territory, and held his own only by straining every nerve. His victory consisted in the fact that he compelled the enemy to recognize Prussian power, with all its logical consequences for the altered situation in Europe. Prof. Rohrbach considers that Germany might likewise regard herself victorious if, at the end of the struggle, her combined enemies were obliged to desist in their intention to destroy her military power and fall back upon the same conditions as before the war, thus signifying their resources were exhausted more quickly than Germany's. In that case, without fighting the struggle out to a complete triumph, Germany might enter a new epoch with better prospects.

The above is significant and the following which is cabled today is still more so:

The London Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent says he learns that Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancelior, will make a statement in the Heichstag today setting forth the terms on which Germany is willing to make peace.

These statements, coming from the capital of the German empire, give a glimpse of a silver lining to the cloud which has hovered over the civilized world dufing the past seven months. A writer, assuming he is in a position to know, a few days ago said the present war might end by June. According to the above, he may know whereof he speaks.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logey" and heavy. Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
